This Month's Devotion

Biblical love is not just an emotion; it's a commitment to reflect God's heart in our actions. In 1 Corinthians 13:4-7, love is described as patient, kind, and selfless, seeking the good of others above our own. This love is perfectly demonstrated by Jesus, who gave His life for us while we were still sinners (Romans 5:8). Today, let's ask God to help us love others sacrificially and unconditionally, just as He has loved us.

Happy Valentine's Day

Valentine's Day, is an opportunity to reflect on God's love, the ultimate example of unconditional and sacrificial love. It is a day to celebrate the love we share with others, inspired by Christ's command to love one another as He has loved us (John 13:34). Whether through acts of kindness, words of encouragement, or heartfelt gestures, this day serves as a reminder that love is patient, kind, and selfless, as described in 1 Corinthians 13. It's also a chance to honor the relationships God has blessed us with, cherishing them as reflections of His divine love.
